

Colonel Andrew Lowe, AM

Andrew's regimental career was predominantly served in infantry units, including a posting to the United Kingdom and the privilege of Commanding the School of Infantry. He has completed a range of staff and training appointments with experiences in Officer Career Management and with the United States Marine Forces Pacific Command. Andrew's most recent staff appointment has been Colonel Operations Forces Command.

Operationally, Andrew has served in Bougainville, Bosnia, Solomon Islands and the Middle East, and exercised with partner Forces throughout East Asia and the Pacific. In 2016 Andrew had the honour of commanding a Training Task Group in Iraq.

Andrew, Marie-Amélie and their two school-aged children enjoy living on the far south coast.